Alexandria Gazette.

THURSDAY EVENING. DEC. 14, 1905.

The Case of Robt. D. Ballantine. It is alleged that Robert D. Ballantine, the young millionaire society man who committed suicide Saturday, was bled by blackmailers of $70,000 in Virginia. Unable to continue to pay them, he fled to New York November 22 Payment on some of the drafts be had given them was stopped by his family.
They followed him to New York, where instant exposure was threatened.
The harvest of the blackmailers was reaped, it is declared, on a statement in writing by Ballantine, extorted at the point of a revolver.

Proud of his family name, fearing that he could not restrain publicity, and driven half insane by the incessant demands for money, young Ballantine committed suicide.

Twelve men are concerned, it is declared, in the plot to blackmail the young millionaire society man. Of the a leged band of conspirators, one has been arrested and is in jail in Charlo'testhrough the action of young Ballantine's attorney, Carl Fischer Hansen, to whom, on the morning of the day the young millionaire killed Ballantine confided every de tail of the torture he had been through in Virginia.

The astounding story back of the sui cide of the young man was told by Mr. Hansen in New York yesterday.

"If Mr. Ballantine had only waited until Monday for the return of the district attorney from Lakeville, he would have come out all right. Robert was nearly frantic with hysteria and half crazy with fear that the story, a concoction of most hideous falsehoods, would come out and be printed in the

The will of the late Robert Ballantine was opened in Charlottesville yesterday morning in the presence of his trother, and was found to contain a bequest to George Mason, of Edge Hill, the noted Randolph home, with its contents. Henry Young, jr., brother-in-law of Robert Ballantine, is the administrator. It is not believed that any attempt will be made to interfere with the provisions of the will.

Herbert Ballantine's stay in Charlottesville was brief. He took train for New York to attend the funeral of his uncle, Robert F. Ballantine, who died Sunday afternoon at his country home in Madison. N. J. When asked yesterday afternoon whether it was the intention of the Ballantine facily to push the blackmail charges, George Mason said that he had no statement to make for the press. Harry Young, jr., the administrator, will go to Charlottesville on Friday. He is a prominent attorney, and it is possible that he will investigate the charges that have recently been circulated.

Dying of Famine

is, in its torments. like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm. Myers, of Cearfoss, Md., "after trying different medicines and a good doctor, in vain, I at last took Dr. King's New Discovery, which quickly and perfectly cured me." Prompt relief and sure cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, etc. Positively prevents pneumonia. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store, price 50e and $1.00 a bottle. Trial bottle free.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a perfect digestant and digests the food regardless of the condition of your stomach. Relieves Indigestion, Belching, Sour Stomach, and all stomach disorders. Sold by W. F.
